

Julia leads the People & Culture team in initiatives from recruiting to retaining talent, strategy and promotion of employer brand and employee experience, employee development and progression, talent management, inclusion & diversity, and employee communications for over 700 employees across 8 different locations in the U.S. She is a human resources lead with multi-industry experience partnering with leadership and employees with the results of an engaged workforce aligned with the company mission and values.